California Legislation Enacted in 2020 Impacting Survivors of Human Trafficking

AB 2426 (Reyes) Victims of crime.--(certification)

Summary: This bill clarified that a certifying entity for immigration status for human trafficking victims and other crimes victims includes the police department of the University of California, a California State University campus, a California Community College, or a school district.

SB 1190 (Durazo) Tenancy: termination: victims of crime

This bill expands the right to terminate a lease based on being a victim of human trafficking or other crimes to include not just the victim of the crime but a household member, or an immediate family member. The bill authorizes a tenant to attach to the notice to terminate a tenancy any form of documentation that reasonably verifies that the qualifying crime or act occurred. The bill also prohibits an owner or an owner's agent from refusing to rent a dwelling unit to an otherwise qualified tenant solely on the basis that the tenant has previously exercised the tenant's rights under these provisions.
